DOCUMENTS WE WILL NEED TO HELP IN YOUR FAMILY COURT MATTER

1. Write down what happened. Describe as many facts as possible. Mark the page "To My Lawyer" at the top of the page and show it only to a lawyer.
2. Bring to your lawyer all documents and any physical thing you think may be made helpful or harmful to your case. Please include in this packet any doctor notes concerning your children, any therapist notes concerning your children, any correspondence or notes with your partner, any report cards or parent-teacher conference notes.
3. Keep a diary of events that are relevant to the case and other appropriate records.
4. Keep a record of expenses, prescriptions, transportation, and other items of damages, as appropriate.
5. Do not to discuss the case with others or sign anything without discussing with a lawyer.
